

Print Support

NFI is a global leader in the production of custom, high-performing graphic solutions that are customized and crafted with superior quality and durability to a variety of industries. With over 40 years of craftsmanship, our talented and skilled staff works with companies and clients to provide transformative solutions of the highest quality and value. We pride ourselves on exceptional customer service and a dedication to safety and the environment.

Job Description:

Inspect product prior, during and after printing to ensure final quality will be consistent to customer specification and company standards. Perform all printer helper/support duties. Ensure safe and efficient use of materials and equipment. Assist in screen inspection and screen prep. Perform 1st article inspection using 1st article, visual inspection and color criteria. Additional duties as may be assigned by Finishing Quality Supervisor, and or Screen Printer Supervisor. Must have attention to detail. Hard working, learns easily with quality, accuracy, tenacity, and getting it right the first time are key characteristics for position. Monday - Friday with flexibility in hours.

We offer a safe, affirming and positive workplace, a comprehensive benefits package including health, dental, vision, 401k, paid time off, and other rewards.

Submit your interest & resume to:

Cheryl Labrie, Human Resources at clabrie@nficorp.com